10. ASSESSMENT

10.1 Internal Assessment

Distribution and Weight age of Marks

- The performance of a student in each semester / 1 year is evaluated subject – wise with a maximum of 100 for theory and 75 marks for practical subject. In addition, Industry oriented mini-project, seminar and project work is evaluated for 50, 50 and 200 marks respectively.
- For theory subjects the distribution is 25 marks for Internal Evaluation and 75 marks for the End Examination.
- For theory subjects, during the semester there shall be 4 tests, which include, 2 subjective type tests each for a duration of 20 minutes and 2 subjective type tests each for a duration of 90 minutes. One objective type test and one subjective test to be conducted in 1-4 units and one objective type test and one subjective type test are to be conducted in 5-8 units of each semester. The best 3 tests will be considered for awarding 25 sessional marks.
- For the 1 year class which shall be on yearly basis, there shall be 6 tests which include, 3 objective type tests and 3 subjective type tests with the same duration and weightage for each test as mentioned above. However, the performance in the best 4 tests will be considered for awarding 25 sessional marks. The distribution of syllabus for the conduct of objective and subjective type tests in the first year shall be as follows:

1-2 Units one objective type and one Subjective type test

3-5 Units one Objective type and one Subjective type test

6-8 Units one Objective type and one Subjective type test

- Each objective test question paper contains 20 objective type questions for 10 marks. Each subjective type test question paper contains 4 questions out of which any 2 questions need to be answered. The subjective type question paper should also be for 10 marks, 5 marks for Assignment. Though the test pattern is different, all the tests (objective and subjective type tests) have equal weightage.

Human Resources Policy and Service Rules

- For practical subjects there is a continuous evaluation during the semester for 25 sessional marks and 50 end examination marks. Of the 25 marks for internal, 15 marks are awarded for day-to-day work and 10 marks to be awarded by conducting an internal laboratory test. The end examination is conducted by the teacher concerned and another member of the staff appointed by the University.
- The internal assessment marks in the case of project work are based on the evaluation of the project work at the end of the VIII semester by a committee.
- The internal assessment marks awards to the students in theory as well as practicals are displayed on the notice boards about one week prior to the commencement of the theory/practical examination. Students are required to bring to the notice of the Head of the Department the discrepancies, if any.
